4) The services of Khalihats (Gangman) in Municipalities are not pensionable under Appendix 'C' C S R and therefore, no compassionate gratuity is admissible to the family of the deceased. The case cannot also be brought under "Extraordinary pensions as death is met from an ordinary accident. Govt may perhaps consider the case under Rr 356 M S R

Sir,

I have the honour to state that one Kamati Honna, a gangman of the Khalihath gang on Rs 9/- per mensem met with a motor accident in the midnight of 27th September 1944, while returning from duty after removing flags and buntings in the Dasara procession route, and succumbed to the injury in the K R Hospital, the next day Chennamma, wife of the deceased gangman, gave a petition, that the family consisting of five souls, which was mainly depending on the pay of her husband, is now deprived of their subsistence, and prayed for a grant from the Municipal Council

As the deceased gangman had put in nearly seven years of service in the municipality, the Municipal Council resolved to sanction a compassionate grant of Rs 100/- to the family, in their meeting held on 27th January 1945

In enclosing herewith a copy of the resolution No 584 dated 27th January 1945, I request you to be so good as to obtain sanction of Government thereto, at an early date The expenditure in this behalf will be met out of the provision under D2 Repairs of the Public Works budget of this Municipality
